

UNBELIEVING BELIEVER?

21/10/2023 09:09

“And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.”

Luke 1:20

When an individual gives their life to Jesus, they acquire the title of a Believer. Now, with that title comes a lot of responsibilities, chief of which is to take the Word of God at face value regardless of how reasonable or not it seem.

Luke 1:45

“And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.”

Believing the Word of God is the path to blessedness, whereas non believing leads to Divine reprimand. It is not enough to be called a believer, rather it is mandatory to believe every Word that proceeds from the Lord. And there are many Words that were clearly proclaimed to us, but which after a while of waiting and confessing them without immediate manifestation, are thrown into the garbage bin of life. The implication of such attitude is that prayers are not answered and destiny missed, just because the fellow cannot wait.

A clear indication of unbelief is to demand a sign that the Word of God will come to pass.

Ps.119:89

“For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven.”

The Word of God is the final authority over any situation, therefore, whatever is the circumstances one finds themselves in, there is a Word from God that had settled it even before the situation arose, all you need is believe the Word, even though it may tarry, it will surely come to pass. Quit doubting the Word of God, do not be another Zachariah that would only believe if he saw a sign, but, be like Mary, who believed God, therefore there was a performance of that which you will believe. God is still very much in following through on every Word He says, only believe.

The title of a Believer is nothing if you do not believe God at all times.
